CLEVELAND, OH, November 20, 2006 – ProSpection® is pleased to announce the opening of four new franchised units in Michigan, Virginia and Wyoming. The offices are ProSpection of Oakland County North, MI; ProSpection of Oakland County South, MI; ProSpection of Southwest Virginia, VA; and ProSpection of Gillette/Sheridan, WY. The franchise owners have successfully completed and passed ProSpection's initial training program and are ready to serve home buyers and sellers in their respective markets. The ProSpection franchise continues to experience steady unit count growth," stated Kylene Golubski, Vice President of Business Development. "We attribute this to our strong value proposition to prospective franchise owners consisting of a competitive fee structure, comprehensive training, in-depth marketing assistance and solid on-going support." The new franchise owners are Deborah Lucas (MI), Cheryle Hugo (VA) and Mark Wallace (WY). These owners and/or their inspectors are also members of the National Association of Certified Home Inspectors (NACHI), a professional trade group that advances standards of performance and ethics within the industry. "These new franchisees and inspectors are now working with our support staff on the initial launch and marketing of their businesses," stated Golubski. "Over the next couple weeks, a combination of direct mail, public relations and targeted marketing campaigns will be executed to introduce them to their local real estate communities." ProSpection is a rapidly growing franchise system of home inspectors, and a subsidiary of Merrymeeting®, Inc. (MMI), an investment firm specializing in the acquisition and development of franchise systems and related services.
